EXIT TICKET — ANSWER KEY

Topic 1.1 — What Is Entrepreneurship?

1. Answer: B

Sam is an employee: he earns a set wage and the owner carries the risk. Common wrong answer: (A) or (D). Handling money or customers doesn't make someone an entrepreneur. Owning the business and taking the risk does.

2. Answer: D

Pitching again after ten rejections is persistence: keeping going after setbacks. The other options describe real habits, but none of them is what the scenario shows.

3. Sample full-credit response (3 pts)

Strong response (3/3): I need to build time management, because a business owner has to fit orders, school, and customers into the same week. This month I'll write my three most important tasks on a sticky note every night and check them off before I open any apps the next day.

Scoring rubric (3 pts)

- 1 pt: names a work habit from the lesson (or a clear equivalent).
- 1 pt: explains why a business owner needs it.
- 1 pt: gives a specific, doable way to practice it this month.
